

Kim, of the Collingsworth Family, wrote a new song! She was inspired through this time of uncertainty caused by COVID-19 to pen this beautiful song. I hope you enjoy this wonderful and timely lyric.

Joy is Not Cancelled

When life is put on hold
All our plans have cancelled Things have changed
Nothing feels the same Disappointments fears and doubts Go hand in hand and waves of war Everywhere uncertainty

But in the midst of chaos
In the midst of fear
There is something to remember Yes there is something we all need to hear

Joy is not cancelled
It still remains
Gods' goodness, kindness
His grace isn't running low
And He has not changed

So when the trials and test they come Darkness only hides the sun And You can't seem to find Your way
No light of day They never change they will endure

No matter what things look like
All around us

In the midst of chaos
In the midst of fear
There is something to remember
Yes there is something we all need to hear

Joy is not cancelled
It still remains
His grace isn't running low

His power is still abundant His mercies are still new God's plans have not been cancelled
He's fully in control And everything that matter still remains Yes everything that matter still remains

7/2020 I could not say anything more to this timely song. It has blessed my life many times during this time that we are all gong thru and our God is aware of it all!

Thank you so much for your prayers and support of NTCP during these troubling times.
